The class of 1977 graduated 257 strong. Full of enthusiasm, they leave behind the 1976 OVAC Football and Baseball titles. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Ziedler did another fine job as class advisors. The class colors were silver and black, while the Tiger Lily was chosen as the class flower. "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding" was selected as the class motto. Serving as class officers were: Keith Moore, president; Pam Parsons, vice-president; Cindy Scarbrough, secretary; Debbie Schubert, treasurer.

J.V.S. Celebrates First Graduating Class

This year the Jefferson County Joint Vocational School had their first graduating class. The 40 seniors that graduated were proud of their accomplishments. The Class of '77 was the first to attend and to graduate from the school.

The yearbook staff would like to congratulate the students for their success and to thank Mr. Cuthbert for the tour he gave us of the school. The faculty, administration, and the students should be most proud and thankful to have such fine facilities at their convenience.

Beavers do it better!

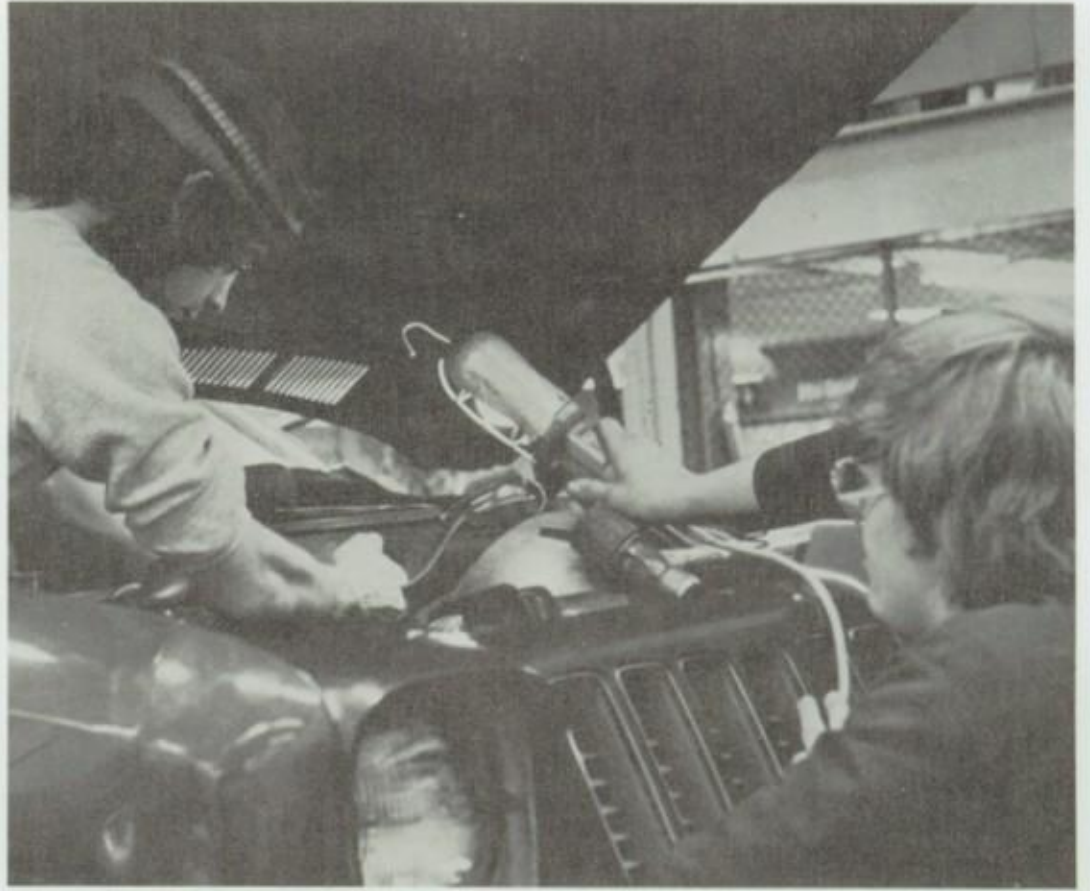

Pressing engagement

This is what you call climbing the ladder of success!!?

After this I'm going to sharpen my mother's kitchen knives.

Thanks for the light, but I don't know what this wire is for.

Well, she's not the girl with the hair anymore.

Now son, this isn't your ordinary electrical circuit.

And if you touch this button, the car will self-destruct.

Hey, stop that! That's My car!

Okay, which one of you wise guys keeps dropping the grease on my head?

Where was I when the lights went out?

Now gentlemen, this is a motor.

Happy faces at W.H.S. and J.V.S.

Meanwhile, Back
at Wintersville.

Would someone offer this lady a chair?

. . . love those ears, Joyce . . .

Why Becky, you have lice.

Look what they let loose and forgot to cage up again.

Robin is oblivious to the fact that Fran is going crazy.

And Abdalla KNOCKS HERSELF OUT under the last hurdle.

This is one of our more popular English mini courses - how to read a newspaper.

Mmmm, I hope this is the right number to dial-an-excuse.

Linda, what you have there has nothing to do with psychology.

And with Susan's talents she will one day become a typist.

They say Maynard Ferguson started this way.

Top row - Carrie Faulkner, Debbie Compston, Karen Cupp. Middle row - Lee Ann Louk and Tammy Zamana. Bottom row - Kathy Jo Delelles.

This year something new and different was experienced at Wintersville High School. We had two sets of cheerleaders for the football and basketball seasons. It seemed to work very well and this process will be continued in years to come.

Freefare Comes to Wintersville

At the beginning of this year we had the pleasure of having an assembly with the group Freefare as our entertainment. They were from Florida. Their purpose was to spread the good news to others.

Prophecy Entertains W.H.S.

Wintersville has their own musical entertainment. Chuck Thompson, John Maragos, Tim Pownall, Danny Mellott, and Lynn Rowland comprise the group PROPHECY. During an assembly-dance in the school, Prophecy showed their skills while playing many rock tunes.

Director Dominick DeLuca

The Wintersville Marching and Symphonic Bands, being active for 11 months out of the year, comprise the most active organization of our school. Much hard work, training, devotion, and pride go into each performance.

This year, our marching band showed those fine qualities by receiving First Place in the West Liberty Competition on October 16. Our Warrior-ette line also received an award for Best Dance Corps. Unfortunately, the State Competition at the Ohio State Fair was canceled due to rain.

The Concert Band showed their fine ability by earning a Superior Rating at State Contest in Dover, Ohio. They have received a Superior Rating for five years in a row.

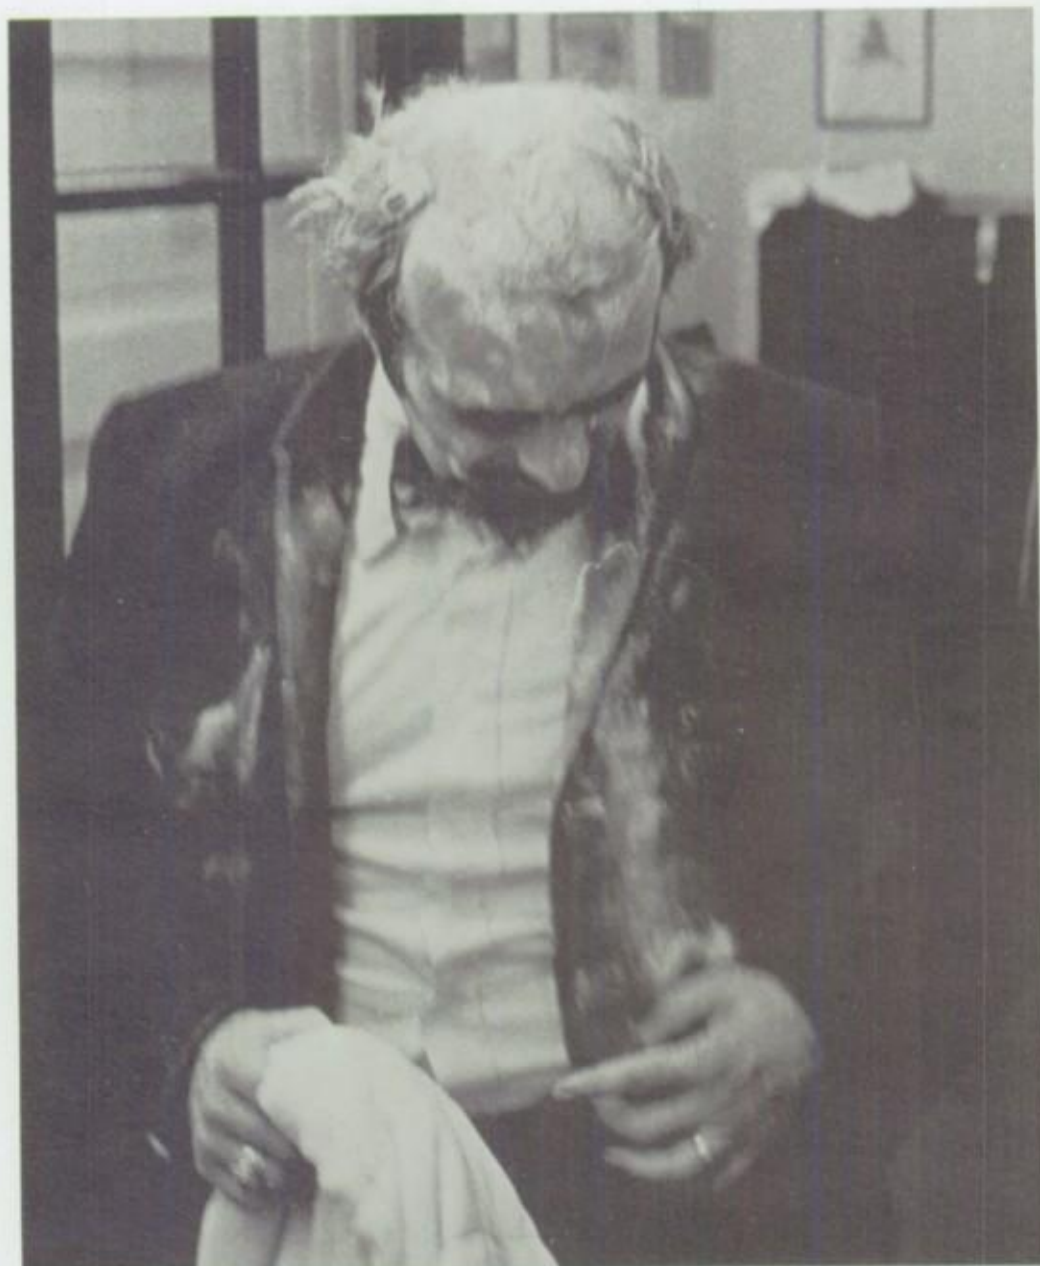

The band is directed by Dominick DeLuca and William Stalnaker.

Director Michael Kotora

Chorus Officers

Mixed Chorus Officers: Jim Kopras, president; Pam Parsons, vice president; Shawn Marshall, secretary; and Dan Walker, treasurer.

The 1977 version of the W.H.S. Chorus under the first year directorship of Mr. Michael Kotora launched an ambitious program of singing and fund-raising. The year saw the chorus selling sponges to buy new robes, the creation of a chamber choir which performed music of greater difficulty, and trips to local nursing homes to entertain the elderly. All this was added to the regular choral concerts at Christmas and Spring, a special concert at the Mall during Christmas, a program for the Masonic Lodge and the traditional music at Baccalaureate and Graduation. Many hours were spent around the piano on "the stage" preparing for their busy schedule of concerts. And of course, who can forget the visit of Dorothy, the Tin Man, the Straw Man and the Cowardly Lion to our own Oz, W.H.S.

Girls Chorus Officers: Cheryl McCann, president; Sue Dunn, vice president; Ingrid Schier, secretary; and Roxann Ryan, treasurer.

Distributive Education Learns Marketing

Becky McLeish and Chris Heilbock were selected D.E. Students of the year as Distributive Education finished its third year of activity at W.H.S. Under the direction of Mr. Mark Stuller, D.E. combines work and study to learn retailing skills such as merchandising, marketing, management and service operations. The students are placed on retailing jobs in the area to put into practice what they have learned in the classroom. One of the "In School" was the Christmas Delicious Shop which sold Christmas candy and decorations. Members honored their employers at the Spring Appreciation Banquet. The officers were Marlena Spurrier, president; Regina Powell, vice president; Becky McLeish, secretary; Debbie Kirkland, treasurer; and Rita France, recorder.

The yearbook staff would personally like to thank MAC of Mansfield Studios for his cooperation during the past year. He's always been there when we needed him to take pictures, even if that meant making personal sacrifices. Thanks to Mansfield Studios, we have fine color pictures in our yearbook. We are fortunate to have such a dedicated person working with our staff.

The Annual Staff Wishes to Thank the Studio Staff for

To

Miss Dorette Boylan

Miss Dorette Boylan has been with Indian Creek School District since 1960. During the 17 years she has taught, she has been a cheerleader advisor and a junior class advisor. She graduated from Steubenville High School. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Lake Erie College and her Masters Degree from the University of Dayton. She also attended the University of Copenhagen, Denmark. Miss Boylan, we dedicate the 1977 WARRIOR YEAR-BOOK to you because you have been a great teacher and a fine advisor for many years. We want you to know that we appreciate the contribution you have made to us and to our school.

And

Mr. Guy Marinacci

Mr. Guy Marinacci has taught at Wintersville High School since 1968. Prior to teaching here, he has taught in Stone Creek and Hopedale, Ohio. He graduated from Hopedale High School. He received his Bachelor of Science degree at Miami University. He also attended the College of Steubenville and Ohio University for graduate work beyond his degree. He has been a football coach since he started teaching at Wintersville. We are sad to see Mr. Marinacci retire from coaching this year. We dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Marinacci, because you are truly admired and respected throughout the entire student body.

A Fare- well to Two Fine Teachers.

This year we say good-bye to two fine assets to the faculty. Mrs. Faye Bowser and Mrs. Guinoux. The yearbook staff would like to say good-bye and good luck to both of you.

Mrs. Bowser was with Indian Creek School District for 27 years. She went to high school at Brothers Valley High School in Berlin, Pennsylvania. She received her Bachelor of Science degree at Indiana State Teacher's College. Before teaching here, she taught in Bedford and Myersdale, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Guinoux has been with this school district for 18 years. Before teaching here she taught in Richmond, Ohio. She went to high school in Germany and France. She got her B.S. degree from the College of Steubenville and also attended Ohio University and West Liberty State College.

The yearbook staff would like to say thank-you for letting Wintersville High School share these years with you.

This year the yearbook staff would like to thank the teachers who went along with the students who got out of classes to work on the annual. You were all so patient and understanding. Also, we would like to thank Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Richards for coping with members of the staff always asking for their assistance in one way or another. A special note of appreciation to Mac of Mansfield Studio. He was very easy to work with and very cooperative. He did an excellent job. We would also like to say "thank you" to the following people for their assistance: Robin Moro, Debbie Wright, Diane Hawkins, Robin Jones, Karen Malesick, Deb Lamantia, and especially to Mr. Thomas Birdsall for cooperating with all of our ideas. A special thanks goes to all the ad salesmen; without their hard work this yearbook would have been impossible to produce.

We hope you enjoy this yearbook. We tried to be fair about everything and we hope we did not centralize all of the attention on one specific group of organization. One last note; the 1977 WARRIOR YEARBOOK staff says thank you for purchasing a copy of the 1977 WARRIOR.
